NEW SILHOUETTES OF THE SEASON - DORI

A mix of culture and class combined in form of indo-western ethnic wear keeps your wardrobe ready for all occasions ranging from casual cocktails to weddings. A sense that is unparalleled in color and the perception of materials is the element of magic, the very creation of it is exclusive. Being able to paint a picture into a real time outfit and our admiration towards pure fabrics followed by our unique style of designing has been our contribution towards the fashion culture, we however have not forgotten our roots and therefore take immense pride on the Indian touch we provide to the customers.

At the heart of Dori's art is the creation of bold haute couture works that draw attention, alongside a classic, refined and accessible collection. Dori evokes sophistication, elegance and independence. We are therefore not dictated or grateful for monetary contributions but instead would be happy to work with people who have an eye for art and culture. If you're looking to get fashionably rich and appreciate designing we welcome you with both our hands and are grateful to provide you with our service.

Dori's design :- The earth may revolve around the sun but wearing our outfits will certainly make you the centre of attraction. Our eloquent masterpieces will enhance your clothing collection by giving you a variety of options and styles right from capes and drapes sets in side functions to Co-ord set for casual brunch and cocktails all the way upto to your designer lengha choli for sangeet nights. We also have gowns just in case you're called for the met gala at least you're not out of options. Our fabrics are suited to your skin and style and if you don't know what you're looking for then you're looking for Dori.

Dori's principles - "Businesses don't buy or sell to businesses instead we buy and sell from people." We would like to build a strong relationship with our customers to build a stronger foundation for our business. We are here to create a legacy on the basis of trust and goodwill. Our motto here is to welcome everyone who respect our values and would like to be a part of our legacy. We would be honoured to provide our services at this event.
